Community Development Partnership Welcomes Four New Staff Members

Since 1992, the Community Development Partnership (CDP) has been a leader in developing and delivering innovative programs to help build a diverse year-round community of people who can afford to live, work and thrive on the Lower and Outer Cape. In recent months, the CDP team has grown and is pleased to announce its additions to the CDP staff.

The CDP welcomes Kathleen Boyce as Chief Financial and Administrative Officer. Boyce brings strong skills in financial reporting and financial system conversions as well as a deep understanding of the importance of affordable housing and economic development. Boyce served as CFO/COO at the Massachusetts Dental Society for 18 years, received a BS in Business Administration from Boston College and is certified Public Accountant in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. "I am thrilled to be joining the CDP as the new Chief Financial and Administrative Officer during this period of growth in both staff and programs," says Boyce. Boyce and her family recently relocated from Wellesley to Hyannis.

Provincetown resident Brad Badgley has joined the CDP's staff as Director of Housing Advocacy. Brad's primary focus is supporting the creation of affordable housing by managing the Lower Cape Community Housing Partnership as well as managing the CDP's Homeownership education program.

Prior to joining the CDP, Brad served as an Associate Dean in Residential Education at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has an M.Ed. in Student Affairs and Higher Education Administration and a B.A. in Communications from Wright State University along with doctoral coursework in Counseling, Adult and Higher Education from Northern Illinois University. Brad completed six years of honorable service in the U.S. Air Force and Illinois Air National Guard.

MalloreY Yannone joined the CDP as Community Organizer, a newly created position designed to support of the CDP's Housing Advocacy Programs. In this role, she will be conducting outreach, base building, training, education, and leadership development for Lower Cape residents wanting to support affordable housing.

Before joining the CDP, MalloreY, who currently lives in Eastham, worked for Citizen Action of New York advocating for Social Justice issues and initiatives including Voting Rights, Climate Justice, Parole Reform, and Housing Justice. She earned her BA in History and German from SUNY New Paltz and her MA in Modern and Contemporary German Studies from the University of Nottingham in the UK.

Vittoria Crea has been hired as our new Housing Rehabilitation Program Manager and is responsible for the administration and management of the CDP's Housing Rehabilitation programs including the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) loan program and the Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) Resource Center.

Vicky earned a BA in Accounting from Pace University and a law degree from Pace University School of Law. Vicky had a successful 25-year career in the corporate tax field, with a special focus on international trade compliance and policy. Before joining the Community Development Partnership, Vicky worked for Cargill, Inc., the largest agriculture company in the world. Vicky and her family reside in Yarmouth.

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP

The Community Development Partnership leads the Lower Cape in building a diverse year-round community of people who can afford to live, work and thrive here. To accomplish our mission, we promote, develop and manage affordable housing; nurture the launch and growth of small businesses; and facilitate collaboration with business, non-profit and government partners.
